All donations benefit Bereaved Parents of the USA St. Louis

Website: <http://www.bpusastl.org/>

Bereaved Parents of the USA (BPUSA) is a national non-profit group that offers support, compassion and hope especially to bereaved parents, grandparents, and siblings to rebuild their lives after the death of child.

Our St. Louis Chapter supports families through monthly group support meetings, makes available a library of grief books and tapes and provides bi-monthly newsletters to over 200 people. Events include a Spring grief workshop and an annual Christmas candlelight service in memory of our children.
